

MINISTER CARR:

Canada needs an independent corporate watchdog with teeth!

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Dear Minister Carr:

In January 2018, the government of Canada announced the creation of a Canadian Ombudsperson for Responsible Enterprise (CORE) to investigate allegations of human rights abuses by Canadian companies operating overseas. But the post sat vacant for 15 months.

Now, you have appointed a watchdog without independence or investigatory powers and with a narrow mandate.

I am deeply disappointed and worried about what this announcement means for people and communities harmed by Canadian extractives and garment industries.

I call on you to grant the CORE, under the Inquiries Act, the power to:

Monsieur le Ministre de la Diversification du commerce international,

En janvier 2018, le gouvernement du Canada a annoncé la création d'un poste d'ombudsman pour la responsabilité des entreprises (OCRE) chargée d'enquêter sur les allégations de violation des droits humains par des sociétés canadiennes qui exploitent des sociétés étrangères. Mais le poste est resté vacant pendant 15 mois.

Vous avez maintenant annoncé la création d'un organisme de surveillance dépourvu d'indépendance, de pouvoirs d'enquête, de pouvoirs d'obligation de contraindre des documents et des témoignages, et d'un mandat restreint.

Je suis profondément déçue et inquiétée de la signification de cette annonce pour les personnes et les communautés touchées par l'industrie extractive et du vêtement canadiennes.

Je vous demande d'accorder à l'OCRE le pouvoir :

- undertake full and independent investigations of allegations of human rights abuse by Canadian extractives and garment companies,
- report publicly and
- make recommendations to remedy the harms caused by Canadian companies overseas.

The CORE must have the power to compel documents and witnesses in order to be effective.

Anything less is a setback for corporate accountability in Canada and undermines respect for human rights.

- d'initier des enquêtes exhaustives et indépendantes sur les allégations de violation des droits humains par des entreprises extractives et vestimentaires canadiennes
- de rendre compte publiquement
- de faire des recommandations pour remédier aux torts causés par les entreprises canadiennes à l'étranger.

Tout le reste est un recul pour la responsabilité des entreprises au Canada et mine le respect des droits humains.
