

Christian Heritage Party (CHP Canada):

Response to Canadian Network on Corporate Accountability election questionnaire

CHP Canada supports legislation requiring similar human rights and environmental standards in any country in which we have trade agreements. We would also require Canadian companies conducting business abroad to adhere to similar Canadian human rights standards and to conduct business with companies adopting similar human rights standards.